This pretty house is tastefully furnished with authentic and beautiful furniture, personal decoration and natural walls. The house has been a working vineyard, and the living room was where the vine-press was situated. A pretty detail is the glass in the floor, allowing one to view the preserved wine-cellar below. Directly connected with the kitchen, there is access to the cosy covered terrace with barbecue and an excellent view. From the common room, you have access to the very big pool area with the natural swimming pool and sun loungers and parasols. The swimming pool works with a new technology allowing the water to be cleaned by plants rather than chlorine or machinery.

On the upper floor, you find the 4 bedrooms, a triple room with a double bed and a single bed and bathroom en suite with shower, then there is a double room and a triple room with single beds sharing one bathroom. Finally, there is a very special bedroom with very high ceiling. It has a double bed and then there are stairs up to a low loft under the ceiling with 3 beds for children.
